[Remain standing]

Venite

(Daily except in Eastertide)

Cantor: Come, let us sing to the Lord; //

All: let us shout for joy to the Rock of our salvation.

Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving // and raise a loud shout to him with psalms.

For the Lord is a great God, // and a great king above all gods.

In his hand are the caverns of the earth, // and the heights of the hills are his also.

The sea is his, for he made it, // and his hands have molded the dry land.

Come, let us bow down, and bend the knee, // and kneel before the Lord our Maker.

For he is our God, and we are the people of his pasture and the sheep of his hand. // Oh, that today you would hearken to his voice!

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: // as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever.

Amen.

(The Antiphon verse on Page 2 is repeated by all in unison.)

Pascha Nostrum

(From Easter thru Pentecost)

Cantor: Alleluia. Christ our Passover has been sacrificed for us; //

All: therefore let us keep the feast.

Not with the old leaven, the leaven of malice and evil, // but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth. Alleluia.

Christ being raised from the dead will never die again; // death no longer has dominion over him.

The death that he died, he died to sin, once for all; // but the life he lives, he lives to God.

So also consider yourselves dead to sin, // and alive to God in Jesus Christ our Lord. Alleluia.

Christ has been raised from the dead, // the first fruits of those who have fallen asleep.

For since by a man came death, // by a man has come also the resurrection of the dead.

For as in Adam all die, // so also in Christ shall all be made alive. Alleluia.

Throughout the world the holy Church acclaim you;
Father, of majesty unbounded,
your true and only Son, worthy of all worship,
and the Holy Spirit, advocate
and guide.
You, Christ, are the king of glory,
the eternal Son of the Father.
When you became man to set us free you did not shun the Virgin's womb.
You overcame the sting of death and opened the kingdom of heaven to all believers.
You are seated at God's right hand in glory.
We believe that you will come
and be our judge.
Come then, Lord, and help
your people,
bought with the price of your
own blood,
and bring us with your saints to glory everlasting.

A Song of Penitence

long-suffering, and abounding in mercy.
You hold back your hand; // you do not punish as we deserve
In your great goodness, Lord, you have promised forgiveness to sinners, // that they may repent of their sin and be saved.
And now, O Lord, I bend the knee of my heart, // and make my appeal, sure of your gracious goodness.
I have sinned, O Lord, I have sinned, //
and I know my wickedness only too well.
Therefore I make this prayer to you: //
Forgive me, Lord, forgive me.
Do not let me perish in my sin, // nor condemn me to the depths of the earth.
For you, O Lord, are the God of those who repent, // and in me you will show forth
your goodness.
Unworthy as I am, you will save me, in accordance with your great mercy, // and I will praise you without ceasing
all the days of my life.
For all the powers of heaven sing your praises, // and yours is the glory to ages of ages. Amen.

The Song of Zechariah

Cantor: (✝) Blessèd be the Lord, the God of Israel; //

He has raised up for us a mighty savior, // born of the house of his servant David.

Through his holy prophets he promised of old, that he would save us from our enemies, // from the hands of all who hate us.

He promised to show mercy to our fathers // and to remember his holy covenant.

This was the oath he swore to our father Abraham, // to set us free from the hands of our enemies,

Free to worship him without fear, // holy and righteous in his sight all the days of our life.

You, my child, shall be called the prophet of the Most High, // for you will go before the Lord to prepare his way.

To give his people knowledge of salvation // by the forgiveness of their sins.
